Mr. Billingsley, moved to postpone the further consideration of the order of the day, for the purpose of submitting an order;

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Alexander, said bill was amended by inserting after the word "Senate," in the 8th section second line the following, "or by his removal from the city or county, in which he resided at the date of his election."

On motion of Mr. Harris, said bill was further amended by inserting as the 9th section thereof the following:

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the relation of master and slave in this State, shall not be abolished unless a bill so to abolish the same, shall be passed by three fourths of the members of each branch of the General Assembly, and shall be published at least three months before a new election of delegates, and shall be confirmed by three fourths of the members of both branches of the General Assembly at the next regular constitutional session after such new election.

Mr. Primrose, moved further to amend said bill by inserting as the 10th section thereof the following:

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That no change or alteration tending to increase the present number of delegates, on this floor from any county or city in this State, as provided for in the first sec. of this bill, shall be made by any subsequent legislation, notwithstanding the provisions of 4th sec. of said bill, which may be in any wise calculated to affect the interest of the Eastern Shore particularly, unless for the alteration and confirmation thereof, at least three fourths of both branches of the General Assembly concur therein.

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Primrose, the yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:—

AFFIRMATIVE.
